Wisconsin State 4H Judging Contest

These four girls went to the Wisconsin State 4-H Judging contest from Monroe County. They are from left to right Zoe DeWitt, Jocalyn Carpenter, Stacey Ebert and Bridget Clevon. All but Jocalyn are new WAHYA members this year. The write up is mainly about them. I coached the team and two of the girls (Jocalyn and Stacey) went to Tulsa on the WAHA B team. The other girl on the WAHA B team was Jessica Arnold. Cathy Arnold coaches the other WAHA team and they did very well at Nationals. Hannah Halterman was to be on the WAHA B team, but was bumped up to the A team when they had a no show at Tulsa. These girls that were on the B team are all very young (10- 13). They have a great future if they wish to continue judging.
